

Morten Poulsen Trio

RIGHT!

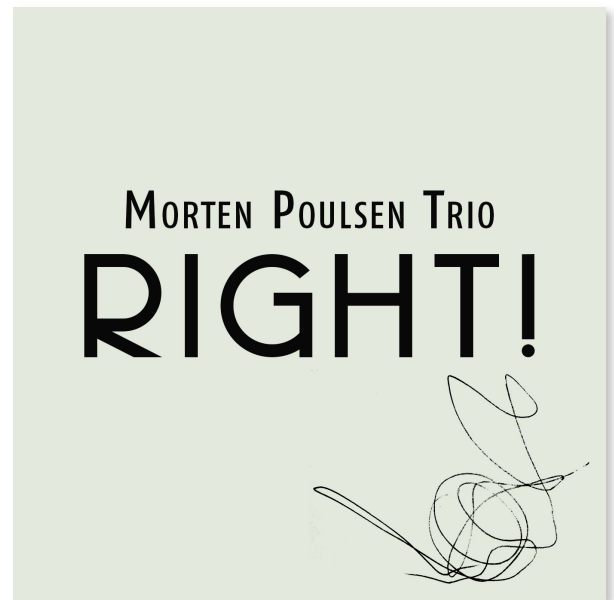

ABOUT

Comprising of seven original songs composed over a period of three years, as well as one composition by Erik Satie, the first album from Morten Poulsen Trio mixes freedom and structure with an almost anti-stylistic approach to improvisation that takes place on a highly communicative level.

Inspired by early experimental electronic music and jazz/avant-garde, the music on RIGHT! alternates between wide open sounds and dense rhythmic patterns.

"With this recording I wanted to express youthful propulsive energy and a radical attitude to music, forming it into an old fashioned statement; right, here it is!"

- Morten Poulsen, 2016
